

Optional Group Admission to the Newseum Deadline to purchase tickets is December 18, 2017

The Election Center has arranged for group admission tickets for the Newseum for Friday afternoon, January 12, 2018. The Newseum is located at 555 Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, DC. Transportation to and from the Museum is not included but there are two Metro stops that are within walking distance of the museum:

Archives/Navy Memorial/Penn Quarter, served by the Green and Yellow Lines

Judiciary Square, serviced by the Red Line.

We plan to adjourn JEOLC at 1:30 pm on Friday, January 12. Our group tickets will allow entry into the Museum any time after that and are valid until closing which is 5pm. The tickets will also be valid from 9am-5pm on Saturday, January 13, if you would like to return.

The cost of the group tickets are $20 each (which includes tax) and can be purchased by check or credit card. Makes checks payable to the Election Center and mail to: Election Center, 21946 Royal Montreal Drive, Suite 100, Katy, TX 77450. Include a copy of this form with your check. If you wish to purchase tickets by credit card, click HERE and indicate in the “This Payment is for” field, Newseum ticket(s). Purchased tickets will be provided to you once you arrive at JEOLC.

These group tickets are for admission only (directory and map will be provided at the museum and is included in the price of admission). If you would like a guided tour, you will need to arrange it directly with the museum (202) 292-6100). The price is about $60.

The deadline to purchase group tickets is December 18, 2017. There will be no refunds. A few additional tickets MAY be available after that date.

If you have additional questions about this optional tour, please contact Pat Hawkins, Conference Director at 916-686-7928 or e-mail at conferences@electioncenter.org.
