MEMBERSHIP AWARD NOMINATIONS

Members are now encouraged to nominate another member for the prestigious Hall of Fame and Lifetime Achievement Awards. Submit your nominations by following the guidelines on page 2 and submitting your application(s) by the deadline. There are no specific numbers of awardees each year, some years there are none, applications will be judged on the basis of their merit.

The Election Center Board of Directors bestows the Hall of Fame designation to outstanding individuals in our profession. Any member of the National Association of Election Officials may nominate another member for this distinction. Nominations will be submitted to the Program Development & Awards Committee who will then forward their recommendations to the Board of Directors for final determinations. There will be no more than two recipients chosen starting in 2024.

Requirements for Hall of Fame Nominations:

- Served in the election profession for at least ten years
- Participated not only in their community, but also made contributions statewide
- Worked for at least one election organization at the national level
- Led an organization (e.g., officer or committee chair)
- Earned respect and trust among peers
- Furthered the profession through conduct and actions

The Board of Directors also bestows the Lifetime Achievement Award to recipients for service to the profession and to the Election Center. This honor entitles recipients to free membership in perpetuity and registration and classes at member costs. There will be no more than one recipient chosen starting in 2024.

Requirements for Lifetime Achievement Nominations:

- Served in the election profession for at least ten years
- Individual has made significant impact on the election profession over the course of their career—include innovations or body of work to consider in the review of the application.
- Individual is known to exemplify the Election Center Principles and Standards of Conduct
- Has been recognized and awarded accolades for their work
- Has contributed to the organization in a leadership role, serving on committees, and/or contributing to conference and events

Application Contents Guide

1. Cover page must be included with every entry
2. Nomination Paper, limited to two 8 ½ x 11 pages. (No exceptions, additional pages will disqualify entry.) Include in the nomination paper:
 - a. The ways to which the nominee satisfies the requirements for the award chosen
 - b. Why you believe they should be awarded the honor.
3. Email as a PDF to tpatrick@electioncenter.org by 11:59PM ET on June 10th.
4. (There is no fee for submitting nominations for either award.)

Selection and Processing Guide

1. Nominations are received by CEO of Programs by 11:59PM ET on June 10th.
2. CEO of Programs sends out all nominations to members of the Program Development and Awards Committee on June 11, 2024 along with a scoring sheet.
3. Each committee member independently reads, reviews, and ranks each nomination on a scale of 1 – 5.
4. Candidates with more than one nomination will have that taken into consideration.
5. A conference call is held between committee members to review scores and determine names to advance to the Board of Directors for final determination.
6. The Board will make their decision and winners contacted.
7. Awards will be given at the Election Center National Conference.
